QUESTION:

Of the major USIB producers of scientific and technological intelligence concerned with atomic energy it can be stated that:

1. OSI has the sole responsibility for producing intelligence in the field of Soviet AE developments.
2. All USIB components share in this effort with OSI, but OSI is the primary contributor.
3. DIA has the primary responsibility, supplies the JAEIC secretariat and makes the major contribution.
4. Only OSI makes a major USIB contribution, but the AEC conducts the major part of research on Sino-Soviet AE programs.

The Office of Training has asked that we review this question which I believe is included in the quiz for the Intelligence Orientation Course. The students apparently have difficulty with it because the alternatives seem ambiguous. OTR would appreciate it if your Office would revise the question accordingly.

May we have this back by Tuesday, 26 September.
